

Only the best salon experts are hired to share their talents will our clientele. Our employees face rigorous training and certifications to make it to our salon.

The majority of clients tend to be middle-aged working women. As a result, La Chevelure works late hours to ensure that every client is able to get in for an appointment after work. All of the clients that go to La Chevelure are looking for a unique salon and spa experience. They come from homes that prefer the luxurious services that La Chevelure will offer them.

This salon provides a relaxing and comfortable environment; In fact, the salon provides an environment that invites you to a piece of France.

La Chevelure hopes to craft their local business brand in the most authentic light possible. With hopes of furthering the brand and eventually expanding, it is important that a timeless design is curated. La Chevelure's competitors include Cinta Salon and Blake Charles Salon & Spa of San Francisco.
